So I was in Great Britain for studies, made some friends, then left in February 2020 after my studies. My stay in the country made me get acquainted with people from different race and culture. Unfortunately, I couldn't have a relationship even though I wanted to. Perhaps it's because I've never had one before and I lack the skills in starting one.

I am November born, an only child, somewhat shy, and a new amazon kindle self-publisher. I've authored one short fiction and one poetry on Amazon. I studied engineering up to masters level, but I'm still looking to get a job and have a business on the side.

One more thing about me is that I'm not aging fast probably due to my gene. Many people, including complete strangers at where I worked in London, told me I look 8 years younger than my age. It surprised me at first because I didn't know. But I am now used to looking young and proud of it too.

I'm hoping to meet a lovely lady on here and grow with her in life.
