No offence indeed, but I do not like Russian ladies, and Russian clubs as well. Russian girls are nervous or what. anyway, it's difficult to talk to them and this feeling that you are just a purse full of money and they are like lions on the hunting. if they need something, they will talk to you in a sweet manner, like Sirens sing their songs for sailors. But as only something's going wrong, in a different manner, like they couldn't predict, they drive crazy.

No. I say 'NO' to Russian girls. People have to be more generous, more sincere, more cheerful and romantic. Money makes Moscow goes round. And this is abnormal. Guys, never lose you humanity, especially you, girls. Do not transfer into Sirens creatures.
