I've been using dating sites for a while. And got not very good experience in past with previous websites. I don't want to make the same mistakes and get burnt again. So I have left those sites.....

Now I've tried victoriyaclub. Could you tell me smth about it?

I do really like that one and women there. No fakes, no lie!

Seems like I have a chance here to meet my love.

Need your advice about this website!!!
