I am a bit shy girl. And I really do have problems in dating coz of this. Please advice me how to behave myself on the first date to impress a guy? What should I say or how I have to act myself?

if today is your first date you live with your friend very simple, you only follow his activities, he see your or other girls, you discuss with his any topic then you know more about his activities, intelligence, he love you or not, he like you as a girl friend or as a life partner, many more details. Then you impress him as a surprise with his favorites gifts etc.

I think the most important thing that counters in a date are your physical presence and behavior. For both the boys and the girls' confidence is the key to get success in this field. Be confident, try to do a decent talk. Dressed up nicely. Be kind and sweet to everyone around you. Have faith in yourself that you can win his/her heart. Know more at etiquette of first date.

first of all you must understand that in front of you is the human, made of muscles and bones, which also has its weaknesses and preferences.
Today we have the Internet, so you can, before you go on a date, or even a make friends for the first time or start to chat with someone, find out about this person at least anything. as they say, "Forewarned is forearmed." so you will always feel yourself comfortable.
Another thing that has a value for every a woman is her underwear and hygiene. Yes -Yes. And it's not funny. always keep yourself clean and tidy, and underwear in a befitting way. This will give your confidence 100500 plus. And I'm not kidding. Just try it. You'll feel your confidence and it will be transmitted to people. And the people will feel your wild magnetism.

Hello. There is a simple and proven way to solve this problem.
You have to drink it. If you will be a little drunk - that's half the battle. Then you tebuetsya just go on about your natural instincts.
Personally, I have it worked so many times. The main thing is not to overdo it.
