I have been dating with this guy for 4 month. At first everything were looking perfect.
But for the last time he has stopped calling me as often as before. And when I call him he said that he is extremely busy or feel himself bad to meet with me. Does it mean that he doesn't want communicate with me anymore? Or he really can be busy or this is my crazy imagination?

By looking at your problem, it seems he is not interested in you anymore. Sorry to say but these are the signs of a man to identify whether he is interested in you or not. I may advice you to move on and find a perfect partner.

You just have to accept the fact that he is not interested to you. Maybe he doesn't want to hurt you by pretending that he loves you. there many options there you just have to look around.

Maybe he doesn't really like you that much that is why he is making a lot of excuses.

Hello,

I think he is avoiding you by saying this, this is signal you must understand. dnt waste your time or .. if you really love him you may try some other way to not let him go!

Maybe he is intended to leave you. Try to spy him if he really busy or not.

I think it's not a big deal, but in some cases it means that he doesn't want to meet you) Maybe you should ignore him too=)

Dear, maybe you should better ask him does he want to communicate with you?

If he is not giving you an alternative meeting term then he is just saying you excuses and he don't want to meet with you.
