I'm just crushed to found out that a girl I liked for a month now and went out on a date with her and found out she's using the I want to be friends excuse so she can date another guy. Why the heck did she do this to me? I feel so used because she was bored and was looking for a guy looking like Tom Cruise. I'm a nerd by the way. Before all this she was really depressed about her past breakups. I was trying to cheer her up and this is what she does to me?

Welcome on board!

Yeah, sometimes girls do that .. that's really frustrating..

Just a quick question: when you've been trying to cheer her up, did you treated her like a friend, or like a lady?

Can you tell me 'do girls know what they want'? It's quite difficult to answer as well as difficult to find the answer to your question, because she won't what she wants but here is something u should know....ever since they're born, all the fantasies is about the perfect man, we men on the other hand think about monsters and epic battles. They want a relationship thats for sure but they
