This site looks a bit new to me.

The website promises a new dating experience with a forum per country (e.g. Germany dating, France dating) and being cheap.

They call themselves the casual dating portal to Europe and I wonder if someone here has tried them already.

This is the site: upfriends.eu

If I don't know the site and my friends don't, I try to avoid it. Nowadays there too many cheaters. The name of a good site usually emerges at least anywhere to prove that it is safe and useful. I believe that everything new is well forgotten old. so why would you find something new, if there are old checked good sites with good reputation? for sample, I like livedateseach dating site and I don't want to change my preferences. So why don't you do the same?
