Show kindness to your date by being interesting and exciting. Talk about feelings, people wants to get away from facts questions and rather will talk about emotive answers and emotive questions.

Choose place where you can feel comfortable. Instead of cafe you can go on places where you can play some fun games and have a cool time together.

Just make sure you give space and time for your partner, never to cheat on them and stand your words!

Keep eye contact and stay interested. Listen to what the other has to say. Dress good, smell good, talk sense, respect the other person and regardless the outcome, stay honest with your feelings.
